President's Notes

Hello again. This month's column feels a little different than most. I want to spend a few minutes talking about a couple of things that most folks don't know, or have maybe forgotten about how the HOA operates and what your role is in it. Living in an HOA is a clear advantage to your property values. But some folks think that the "HOA" is a secret society that operates behind the curtain like the Wizard of Oz. You know that whole mysterious feeling when a group of people have the power to change lives and enforce rules without your knowledge or input? I have to say, I know the feeling but it's simply not true.

The HOA is actually subject to laws to ensure homeowners have the authority to run the HOA and not the other way around. PGNA's board is all volunteer homeowners, and we are there to represent you. Over the past few years we've gone to great lengths to provide the communication and transparency that is appropriate in a membership organization, including making sure homeowners have convenient access to meetings and are welcome and able to give their input.

But attending a meeting or two isn't really what makes an effective HOA. Don't get me wrong, that can be a way to stay connected but being active in your community is so much more than that and it doesn't have to be a huge time commitment. Over the past 4 or 5 years I have seen this community do amazing things, both sponsored by and separate from the HOA. There is no question that Park Glen has great residents but to make the neighborhood the best it can be, carving out a little time to give back is imperative. Working with the HOA to coordinate efforts brings greater community awareness.

So why does the HOA struggle? If you ask a resident what the biggest challenge is, they'd likely say, "our neighborhood is not being kept up". Some of the answer to this challenge is the complexity of having 13 Villages and 19 sets of deed restrictions but the clear, honest truth is (and I've said this many times before), as Park Glen gets older, it will be more difficult to maintain. We have a population that's increasing in age but, honestly, the major struggle is homeowners or residents who don't have any interest in following the deed restrictions. In direct contrast to that is the limited ability of an HOA to enforce them. I don't want to say there's nothing that can be done but the choices can be hard ones. Also, not only are our CC&Rs really old, they lack realistic provisions to change or amend them. Being involved helps you better understand that.

That said, the largest struggle by far is volunteerism. It's an issue that I thought we (the board) could solve if we put enough effort into it. Even though we've broken records and had terrific events, I'm sad to report that we just not have been as successful as I'd hoped. To be fully transparent, for all of the events that the HOA organizes, sponsors and manages, it's typically all done by a very small group of board members, committee chairs and spouses. Keep in mind we have over 3300 homes in our neighborhood and organizing many of our events is quite time consuming due to the limited number of volunteers. Your neighborhood needs you!

Last, you've heard me mention opportunities to get involved and upcoming elections. There will likely be board positions open this year as I have chosen not to run for another term. My wife Dana and I will be stepping away from our responsibilities with the HOA. We sincerely hope that someone will pick up the ball and run with it! If you want to know more about elections or the HOA, visit ParkGlen.org or send a note to PGNAKevin@gmail.com. I'll be happy to answer any questions you may have.

Thanks, Kevin

A Note from Dana

Dear Park Glen Neighbors,

After 4 years of being an active part of the HOA, I will be stepping down as the Social Committee Chair, Communications Committee Chair and Hospitality Committee Chair within the next few months. I would like to find replacements before the next election in September. If you are looking to become more involved in the community, please consider taking on some of these duties. Even if you can only manage and/or help with one event or one part of a committee, that would be great! You will need to be willing and dedicated to put in several hours (depending on what you want to help with). Jumping in with both feet and taking on more would of course take more time.

Just a few of the things I do.....plan, manage and attend events throughout the year (e.g. Eggstravaganza, Turkey Trot, Holiday in the Park, Pool/Movie nights, Town Halls, and smaller events like Bingo and a Valentine's Dinner), put together content for the monthly newsletter, administer three Park Glen Facebook pages, communicate HOA information, community outreach to local businesses and various city personnel and leaders. I would love to see someone re-establish the Hospitality Committee (welcome new homeowners with a welcome bag/packet). I have had to put this one on the back-burner due to being so busy with everything else. It's a great committee and I would love for someone to get it back up and running.

If you are interested in getting more information on any of this please let me know and I will be happy to give you insight on what needs to be done. I will pass on all information that I have gathered over the past few years and set you off on a good path. = )

It has been my pleasure to have served this neighborhood and community the past several years! With the help and approval of the board members we have been able to make our activities and impact bigger and better. Please consider getting involved! Contact me at PGNANewsletter@gmail.com.

Choosing an Electricity Provider

Most of Park Glen's residents can select their electric company.

PowerToChoose.org is the official and unbiased electric choice website of the Public Utility Commission of Texas. This website is available to all electric providers to list their offers for free. Consumers can compare offers and choose the electric plan that's right for them.

Many Park Glen homeowners use EnergyOgre.com, which is an electric broker. For $10 per month, the service analyzes your usage and matches you with an electricity provider for your situation.

Management Company Change

The Park Glen Neighborhood Association Board of Directors has decided not to renew our management agreement with RealManage when it expires on May 31, 2018. The Board has selected Neighborhood Management, Inc. to take over our community management effective June 1.

If you have a balance due to the Association, please pay that as soon as possible or contact the Association Treasurer (PGNARussell@gmail.com) to make payment arrangements.

Starting May 25, homeowners should no longer send or initiate payments, property modification requests, or other communication to RealManage. Shortly before or after June 1, all Park Glen home-owners will receive a letter from the new management company with new contact information and payment addresses.

If you have PGNA set up as a payee in your bank's bill pay service, you may use that until May 25 to initiate payments. If you will not be making a payment to PGNA before then, we ask that you go ahead and delete that payee record on your bank's website to avoid the chance of using that payee in the future and having your payment go to the wrong management company.

COVENANT CORNER

Submission of a property modification request is required for anything not on that list, including:

Recipes

Kettle Korn

Ingredients

1/4 cup vegetable oil
1/4 cup white sugar
1/2 cup unpopped popcorn kernels

Directions

Heat the vegetable oil in a large pot over medium heat. Once hot, stir in the sugar and popcorn. Cover, and shake the pot constantly to keep the sugar from burning. Once the popping has slowed to once every 2 to 3 seconds, remove the pot from the heat and continue to shake for a few minutes until the popping has stopped. Pour into a large bowl, and allow to cool, stirring occasionally to break up large clumps.

Luscious Slush Punch

Ingredients

2 1/2 cups white sugar
6 cups water
2 (3 ounce) packages strawberry flavored Jell-O(R) mix
1 (46 fluid ounce) can pineapple juice
2/3 cup lemon juice
1 quart orange juice
2 (2 liter) bottles lemon-lime flavored carbonated beverage

Directions

1. Bring the sugar, water, and strawberry flavored gelatin to a boil in a large saucepan; boil for 3 minutes. Stir in the pineapple juice, lemon juice, and orange juice. Divide mixture into 2 separate containers and freeze.
2. Combine the contents of 1 container with 1 bottle of the lemon-lime flavored carbonated beverage in a punch bowl; stir until slushy. Repeat with remaining portions as needed.
