Park Glen homeowner Daniel Guido is organizing a holiday shoppe for the PGNA Holiday In the Park event on December 7. The shoppe will be for kids to use their own money to buy and wrap holiday gifts for family and friends. The shoppe and gift wrapping area will be staffed and operated by children and we're planning to have gifts from $0.25 to $2.00 available.

If you are interested in helping organize or volunteer, if you think your kiddo would like to "interview" to work at the shoppe, if you have items/inventory you can donate, or if you have ideas to contribute please contact "Guido" at 682-429-2298 or by e-mail at GuidoCSD@gmail.com.

Consider putting your time & talents to work. PLEASE LET YOUR KIDS KNOW THIS IS AVAILABLE so they can plan ahead. You're welcome, in advance, for all the extra chores that will be done in PG so they can earn money to spend on family and friends! :)

BOARD MEETING

Homeowners are always welcome at PGNA Board Meetings held at the Longhorn Council Activity Center, 5350 Basswood Blvd. at 7pm every third Monday except for the combined November / December meeting held on the first Monday of December. The next meeting is December 2.

Holiday Decorating Contest

Park Glen will again have its annual Holiday Decorating Contest to recognize and show appreciation to residents for their outstanding efforts to decorate their homes for everyone to enjoy.

Entries or nominations are not required. Volunteer judges will tour the neighborhood looking at home decorations between 6 p.m. and 10 p.m. from December 5 through 10. Judging will be based on "curb appeal" as viewed from the street only. The primary factor will be overall presentation ("wow factor"), but judges will also consider uniqueness & creativity, storyline or theme, and neatness & organization. 2017 and 2018 winners and properties with past due balances owed to the Association or outstanding deed restriction violations will not be eligible.

13 homes will be selected (one from each of Park Glen's 13 villages), with each winner receiving a $50 gift card and a yard sign to display for the remainder of the month. Winners will also be announced and pictured on our website and in the January newsletter. Be creative, be festive, and have fun!

We need contest judges! You can be a judge and still be eligible for the contest. Please e-mail PGNAKelly@gmail.com or sign up at the Volunteer page at www.ParkGlen.org right away.

COVENANT CORNER

Rules and Tips Regarding Pets in Park Glen

Types and Numbers of Pets

Only dogs, cats, or other household pets may be kept in Park Glen, up to four pets per home. Livestock, poultry, chickens, roosters, turkeys, cows, horses, bees, pigs, hogs, sheep, goats, guinea fowls, ducks, and skunks are not allowed in Park Glen, nor are animals that are raised, bred, or kept for commercial purposes or for food.

Control / Leashing

Pets must be restrained or confined on the homeowner's back lot inside a fenced area or within the house. It is the owner's responsibility to keep the lot clean and free of pet debris. Pet observation holes/windows in fences and pet doors of any kind that are visible from the street are prohibited. City ordinances require that dogs be securely confined or restrained at all times when outside, either behind a fence or on a leash and accompanied by its owner. Unattended dogs may not be tethered or bound by chains, ropes, cables or other devices.

Licensing, Vaccines, & Microchips

The city of Fort Worth requires that all dogs, cats, and ferrets in the city be licensed and vaccinated. Though not required, microchipping your pet is the best way to make sure he or she gets home when lost. Identification microchips are about the size of a grain of rice and are implanted under your pet's skin at the shoulder, and it can't be easily lost or removed like a collar tag. All microchips are listed in a database, making it easy for animal control to reunite pets and owners.

Animal Noise & Waste

Animals that cause frequent or continuous noise that disturbs others may earn their owners a city fine of up to $500. Owners who fail to pick up the waste of their pets also violate the law. Animal noise or waste complaints can be made by calling 817-392-1234 or going to the Animal Care & Control section of the FortWorthTexas.gov website. But c'mon, Park Glen, let's be considerate of our neighbors and not give anybody anything to report.

Lost Pets

If you find or lose a pet, we suggest posting on the Facebook "Park Glen Area Lost and Found Pets" page and other sites rather than putting up signs. Social media allows quick interaction and updates between neighbors to relay sightings and information, and there is nothing to take down when the pet is returned to the owner.

A property modification request is required from residents who want to make improvements or modifications to your property. You can find the forms on our website: www.ParkGlen.org

We are now signing up vendors and crafters for Holiday in the Park (Saturday, December 7 - 9:30a to 12:30p). If you'd like to be a part of that, please sign up here.
